

Information about restrictions on cross-border payments by card

According to international sanctions, terms of use of payment cards, and Signet Bank's internal risk management policy, there are restrictions on the use of payment cards in certain countries / territories.

In order to avoid a situation where, your funds may not be available to you while you travel, we recommend that you notify your private banker before a trip, as well as regularly review information on our website for updates.

Countries/ territories where it is not possible to pay with Signet Bank payment cards:

Crimea
Iran
North Korea
Syria
Sudan

Countries where we urge you to be extremely careful while using payment cards. In these countries, Signet Bank may limit payment card transactions in order to avoid possible fraud risks:

Bolivia	South Korea
Brazil	Morocco
Colombia	Mexico
Dominican Republic	Malaysia
Egypt	Peru
Hong Kong	Papua New Guinea
Indonesia	Philippines
India	Thailand
Cambodia	Vietnam

This list may be changed and updated from time to time.